

Eileen Grubba

ACTRESS | WRITER | PRODUCER | SPEAKER

About Eileen

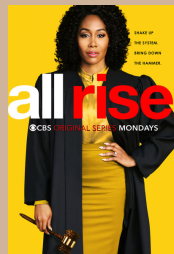

Eileen Grubba is an award-winning actress, lifetime member of The Actors Studio, member of the Television Academy, and Brand Ambassador for Global Disability Inclusion. Her TV appearances include HBO's Watchmen, CBS's SWAT, All Rise, Criminal Minds, NBC's New Amsterdam, Game of Silence, Netflix's The Politician, ABC's Stumptown, FX's Sons of Anarchy, Bones, Fear The Walking Dead, HBO's Hung and Enlightened, Benched, Instant Mom, CSI: Miami, The Mentalist, Cold Case, Nip/Tuck, The Closer, Monk, and more.

She has won multiple Best Actress awards for Indie films, and wins for Best Ensemble Cast in the female lead. Honored with the WeSpark Award at Idyllwild Film Festival 2020 for social impact on the entertainment industry and won Mary Austin Excellence in Screenwriting Awards in 2019 and 2020, as well as many awards for her disability-inclusive short films.

She is an advocate for the hiring of performers with disabilities in film, television, and advertising, serves on the SAG/AFTRA National PWD Committee, and was selected for the 2020 CBS Leadership Pipeline for directing. She is a national public speaker for events supporting challenged patients, disability inclusion, eradicating bullying, and empowering women. In 2019 she went through training at the FBI's Citizen Academy for community leaders and was keynote speaker for their graduation.

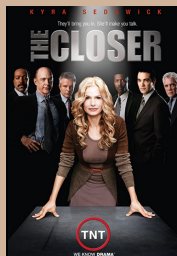

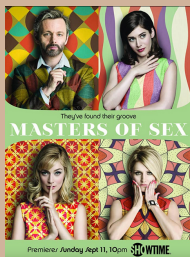

Eileen narrowly survived a viral attack on her spine caused by a vaccine that left her paralyzed. She spent years of her childhood in a wheelchair, and every year since trying to stay on her feet. She is also a cancer survivor.

TV & FILM

TV & FILM

TV & FILM

TV & FILM

Awards & Features

WeSpark Award at Idyllwild Film Festival 2020 for social impact on the entertainment industry

Mary Austin Excellence in Screenwriting Awards in 2019 and 2020 at Idyllwild Film Festival

"I often think if the entertainment industry knew what I was going through when I came into their room with a little limp, they wouldn't be like, 'What's wrong with you?' They wouldn't be so judgemental - maybe they'd just cheer as I walked in the room."

Television
Academy

STRIVE

Forbes

ABILITY
MAGAZINE

S P E A K I N G

Bringing In Your Game Changers

The Power of Disability Inclusion

Finding Your Purpose

Empowering Woman

Empowering ANYONE: Owning Your Power

How to NEVER GIVE UP

Surviving Anything: aka How to LIVE

Facing Cancer

Living with Spinal Cord Injury

Dealing with Bullies at Every Age

Real-Life solutions/Practical Problem-Solving

How to Start a Career in Entertainment

How to SUSTAIN a Career in Entertainment

How to Find Your Joy Again, and Again, and Again

Dealing with Grief and Loss

How to LIVE Your Dreams, No matter What Life

Throws At You

Contact

*For acting, speaking, interview, and sponsorship opportunities, please contact
Eileen's manager Keely Cat-
Wells at info@ctalent.org*

